Diſcourſes Publiſhed againſt POPERY,

BY THE

Members of the Church of England, and by the Non-conformiſts, during the Reign of King JAMES the Second, &c.

IT will not be improper, to premiſe to this Catalogue, an Account of thoſe Treatiſes againſt Popery, which were undertaken, and part of them publiſhed near the end of the Reign of King Charles the Second. It is not unknown to the World, how great a Care, and truly Chriſtian Concern the Clergy of London in particular, did diſcover for the Intereſt of the Proteſtant Religion, and for a happy Union of all moderate Proteſtants within this Nation; nor with what Moderation and Calmneſs, Learning and Plainneſs ſeveral Tracts and Caſuiſtical Diſcourſes were Penn'd for that good purpoſe, and how ſucceſsful they were, by the Bleſſing of God, to the leſſening our Differences, and removing needleſs Scruples, and perſwading great Numbers to return and unite themſelves to their Pariſh Churches.

This happy Succeſs gave them hopes of reducing by the ſame Method, the Papiſts among us, and put them upon deſigning and writing for their ſakes, a Set of Tracts wherein the Controverſie was to be fairly and calmly ſtated betwixt Us and the Church of Rome, and ſuch Arguments and Reaſons uſed, as might convince all conſciencious Papiſts of the Errours and Danger in their Church.

Of theſe, the following were publiſhed before the end of the Reign of King Charles the Second:

1. A Diſcourſe concerning the Neceſſity of Reformation, with reſpect to the Errours and Corruptions of the Church of Rome. Part I. Written by Dr. Stratford, Dean of St. Aſaph.

   I. How far we muſt depend on the Authority of the Church, for the true Sence of Scripture?
   II. Whether a Viſible Succeſſion from Chriſt, to this day, makes a Church, which has this Viſible Succeſſion, an Infallible Interpreter of Scripture?
   III. Whether the Church of England can make out ſuch a Viſible Succeſſion?

   By Dr. Sherlock, Maſter of the Temple.

7. A

10. A Diſcourſe concerning the Devotions of the Church of Rome, eſpecially as compared with thoſe of the Church of England: in which it is ſhewn, that whatſoever the Romaniſts pretend, there is not ſo true Devotion among them, nor ſuch rational Proviſion for it, nor Encouragement to it, as in the Church Eſtabliſhed by Law amongſt us. By Dr. Stanley, Clerk of the Cloſet to her Majeſty.

11. A Diſcourſe concerning Prayer in an Unknown Tongue. By Mr. Williams, Rector of St. Mildred's Poultrey.

17. A diſcourſe ag. ſurpalary ---- 1685.

Thus far had the Clergy proceeded with theſe Diſcourſes at the Death of King Charles the Second: and now, upon the Acceſſion of a King of the Romiſh Perſuaſion to the Throne, they were quickly forced to change their Method, and to be upon the Defenſive Part, their Proteſtant Religion being freely ſtruck at under the Countenance of a King of their own Communion, by the Romiſh Prieſts; and heavy things laid to their charge for having Calumniated and Miſ-repreſented the King's Religion: They little feared any oppoſition from the Clergy of the Church of England, ſince they could not but judge them ſo cautious at leaſt, as not to face ſuch inevitable Danger, and mark themſelves out for Deſtruction, by daring ſo much as to mutter any thing, much leſs write againſt the King's Religion, which it would have been very happy for the Prieſts (who have come off ſo ſhamefully ſince) if they could have made it High-Treaſon at firſt, which I am confident they wanted no will to do.

However, our Clergy valued their Religion and their Church much more than their own Safety, or worldly Intereſt; and a Romiſh Prieſt could not ſooner begin the Quarrel, and open the way to that large Controverſie which hath been managing ever ſince, by charging our Church with Calumny and Miſ-repreſentation of the Church of Rome, than he met with an Anſwerer, who did indeed deſerve the Honour of being the Leader of our Clergy, in this large Controverſie, wherein ſo many have been forced to engage.

I will firſt give an account of the Controverſie with him who wrote the firſt Book, called, A Papiſt Miſ-repreſented and Repreſented, and then proceed with my Catalogue logue as Methodically as I can. In Answer to that Book was first written,

About the time of the publiſhing of the abovementioned Diſcourſes, ſome of the Romiſh Prieſts were for changing the Method of managing the Controverſie betwixt the Church of England and the Church of Rome, for leaving off Writing, and ſet Anſwers in Print, which they were now grown ſick of, and for betaking themſelves to Verbal Conferences, hoping for more ſucceſs by their Tongues, than by their Pens. Mr. Peter Gooden, a Secular Prieſt, was pleaſed to ſingle out himſelf for ſuch purpoſes; but for his fitneſs or abilities, no body could find any, except this may be reckoned one, that tho' he was Maſter of very little or no Learning at all, yet he wanted not the Gift of Aſſurance to encounter the very learneſt Men among us. On February the 21ſt, 1686, he had a Conference with Dr. Clagett about Tranſubſtantiation, tiation, which with two Papers that passed after the Conference betwixt Dr. Clagett and him, shall be published shortly, with a Volume of the Doctor's Sermons now in the Press. This Conference hath been kept private hitherto; but that which made more noise in the World, was Mr. Gooden's Conference about Oral Tradition, about the same time with Dr. Stillingfleet, Dean of St. Paul's; a Conference that was famous for nothing but the Noisiness of the Priest while it was managing, and his Vanity after it was over, together with that of his Second, famous John Sergeant, which were the occasion of these following learned Tracts.

The other Part we may expect ere long.

One of the greatest Arguments insisted on by the Romish Priests, to prove theirs to be the Catholick Church, is from the Notes of the Church, every one of which they did loudly pretend was to be found among them; upon this occasion it was that several of the Clergy of London did undertake the Consideration of the Notes of the Church as laid down by Bellarmine himself, and shew'd in the following Method, how little reason the Romish Church had to pretend to the true Notes of a Catholick Church.

About this time a more diverting Project was set on foot by the Papists, to make the Clergy obnoxious to the Government, or to ruine their Reputation among their own People: The Representer, who had mis-carried so much in his Attempt of putting Varnish'd Popery upon us, is known to have had no small share in the New Project; which was to Represent our Pulpits as perpetually filled with Untruths and Calumnies, with odious Representations and Characters of Popery: this was done under the specious Pretence of giving Good Advice to the Pulpits; in hopes, no doubt, that the Government would have done as Queen Mary did, Silence the Preachers, who took such liberty of striking at the King's Person thro' his Religion.

But if this failed, then to try the other part of the Project, which was to have perswaded the Protestants of England, that notwithstanding the present Opposition of the Clergy, there was in reality a very good Agreement between the Church of England and the Church of Rome; and this was to have got the People to have silenced their Clergy by running away from them as Papists in their hearts: But both parts of this very Hopeful, but very Unchristian Project, were successively defeated by these following Tracts;

Having

Having now dispatched the Catalogue of the several Books published against Popery by the Members of the Church of England, I must, according to my Design, pass now to those published by our Non-conformist Brethren against Popery during King James the Second's Reign; which, according to my best Information, are these:

231 Transubstantiation a peculiar Article of the Roman Catholick Faith; which was never own'd by the Ancient Church, or any of the Reform'd Churches; in Answer to a late Discourse call'd, Reasons for Abrogating the Test. By Mr Goodwin of London.

232 A plain Representation of Transubstantiation, as it is received in the Church of Rome, with the Sandy Foundations it is built upon, and the Arguments that do clearly Evert and Overturn it. By Mr. Pendleberry of Lancashire.

These are all I find written by the Non-conformists, except we must reckon among them the Book written by the late Henry Care: Whether he was a Member of the Church of England, or a Dissenter, I cannot tell; however, I am sure neither Party ought to be ashamed of the Book, which does very well deserve a place in this Catalogue, and is call'd, 234 A Modest Enquiry, Whether St. Peter was ever at Rome, and Bishop of that Church. By Mr. H. Care.

I need not here to beg our Nonconformiſt Brethren's Pardon for this Slender Account of their Writings againſt POPERY, during the Reign of King James the Second, becauſe I have uſed great Diligence to attain an exact Account of them: however, if there be any Diſcourſes written by them, but omitted in this Catalogue, or if any of thoſe in the Catalogue whoſe Authors Names I could not recover, do belong to them: If either the Authors, or any Friends for them, will be pleaſed to ſend the Titles of the Books, with the Author's Name, to Mr. R. Baldwin, the Publiſher of this Catalogue, they ſhall be inſerted into the next Edition of this Catalogue, if it have one.

And the ſame Requeſt is made to the Members of the Church of England.

The END.
